PLAN D'ENSEMBLE

Quartier Durable Exemplaire
TIVOLI

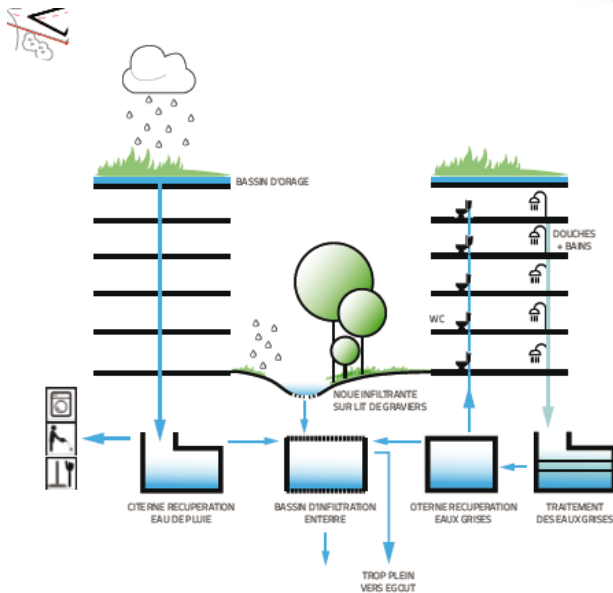

An aerial photograph of a city neighborhood in Oslo, Norway. The image shows a dense arrangement of multi-story residential buildings with red-tiled roofs. A prominent feature is a large, bright red, angular public space or plaza in the foreground, which appears to be a recent development or renovation. The surrounding area includes streets, parking lots, and green spaces. The overall scene depicts a vibrant urban environment with a mix of traditional and modern architecture.
