Programme « World of Cities »

Foundation for the Urban Environment

The University Foundation and the Foundation for the Urban Environment Pierre Laconte have agreed on a new programme of lecture-debates, about tomorrow's world of cities, more exactly of conurbations without boundaries, and possibly without public governance.

Its scope will be global and local, European and Belgian. Three first lunch-debates have been fixed and will be assessed. Some 20 more speakers have indicated their interest.

The languages of lectures are French, Dutch or English. Moderation will take place in the three languages.
