

European Campus of Excellence: Creative City

Name: Creative City – Past, Present and Future
Time: 16th-25th September 2015
Place: International Cultural Centre: Krakow, Rynek Główny 25

Description: The 'Creative City' is a ten-day-long educational programme organised within the frame of the European Campus of Excellence and supported by the German Polish Science Foundation, Studienstiftung des deutschen Volkes and the International Cultural Centre. The program will be inaugurated together with the 3rd Heritage Forum of Central Europe, three days long international conference dedicated to the issues of heritage management.

For more Information see:

<http://www.euca-excellence.eu/index.php/current-and-future-courses/krakow-2015-creative-city>

Draft programme:

Wednesday, 16th September

Morning: Arrival to Krakow
 16.00: Inauguration of the European Campus of Excellence, meeting with dr Michał Wiśniewski
 17.00: Inauguration of the 3rd Heritage Forum of Central Europe and of the ECE 'Creative City' programme, key-note speeches:
 Prof. Gregory J. Ashworth: Cities use heritage as communication but who is communication what, to whom?
 Prof. Christer Gustafsson: Conservation 3.0 - Integrated conservation in the age of smart specialization strategies
 19.00: Coctail (ICC)

Thursday, 17th September

11.30-14.00: 3rd Heritage Forum of Central Europe (sessions: Cities and their narratives - identity; Heritage in conflict; Who is the city for?; Historic Urban Landscape)
 14.00 – 15.00: Lunch (ICC)
 15.00-17.00: 3rd Heritage Forum of Central Europe
 17.30-18.30: Meeting with the 'Creative City' participants, overview of the 3rd Heritage Forum sessions held on 16th and 17th September

Supported by:

19.00: Dinner (ICC)

Friday, 18th September

9.00-13.00: 3rd Heritage Forum of Central Europe (sessions: Cities and their narratives – utopia, Creative heritage cities, Space of the city, Revitalisation practices in heritage cities)

13.00 – 14.00: Lunch (ICC)

14.00-18.30: 3rd Heritage Forum of Central Europe

19.00: Dinner (ICC)

Saturday, 19th September

9.00-14.00: Bus trip seminar to the Nowa Huta industrial site and other sites representing fast development of Krakow during the 20th century summarised with the discussion (Dr Michał Wisniewski)

14.30: Lunch (ICC)

16.00-19.00: Session of two lectures:

Mathias Ripp, World Heritage Coordinator, Regensburg:

„World Heritage Management as a cross-cutting challenge for resilient cities.“

Professor Gregory Ashworth: 'Can we create 'creative cities'?

19.00: Dinner (ICC)

Sunday, 20th September

9.00-14.00: On site visit seminar at the historic centre of Krakow summarised with the discussion (Dr Michał Wiśniewski)

14.00: Lunch (Hummus Hamza Restaurant)

Afternoon: free time

19.00 – 21.00 Dinner (Chimera Salad Bar)

Monday, 21st September

9.00-14.00: Workshop for the 'Creative City' participants, discussion on the topics of the final presentations, division into five groups, work in groups.
(tutors of the groups: Prof. Christer Gustafsson, Ms. Joanna Sanetra-Szeliga, Dr. Michał Wiśniewski, Mr. Krzysztof Jan Chuchra)

14.00: Lunch (ICC)

16.00-18.00: Prof. dr. Jacek Purchla: 'Krakow at the European Core.'

18.30: Key-note speech:

Prof. Gerhard Roth: 'The City and the Brain'

20.00: Dinner (ICC)

Supported by:

Friday, 25th September

- 9.00-12.00: Summary of the ECE 'Creative City' programme with prof. dr. Jacek Purchla, session of two first final presentations followed by the discussion
- 12.00-13.00: Lunch (ICC)
- 13.00-15.00: Session of three final presentations followed by the discussion, final discussion and summary
- 18.00: Farewell reception (ICC)

Saturday, 26th September

- Morning: Checking-out, leaving Krakow

Supported by: